

The Romanian Aid Foundation
with
Asociația Neemia
Prayer Notes, June 2012

In a recent sermon, Pastor Russell alluded to the requirement in Matthew chapter 25 that those who seek to follow God's will should also care for their fellow man in times of adversity. In Luke 3, John told his disciples, "Anyone who has two shirts should share with the one who has none, and anyone who has food should do the same." We are called to be the channels of God's blessing to people in the Dorohoi area of northeast Romania, but channels need to be maintained and replenished, and that is done through prayer. Thank you for your support.

Give thanks for:

- 1.The 'surprise' arrival of some more clothing during the past week, particularly from the Isle of Man team and from Agents for Change, which has allowed the work to continue whilst we await the next load from the UK.
- 2.The AN team would like to give thanks for the security of their jobs, at a time of high unemployment and rising costs when we see daily the effects of austerity and desperation.
- 3.Give thanks for the new people who are taking an interest in our activities, and the continuing support of the 'old-timers'.

Please pray for:

- 1.The situation with regard to the shop, as explained in the current newsletter.
- 2.The continuity of supply of items required to provide for people in increasingly difficult circumstances.
- 3.A lady by the name of Jeta Morsoaca (58) who has a damaged heart valve and partial kidney failure. The cost of a full investigation would be about £120 but because her husband is unemployed she does not qualify for health care.
- 4.The elections which took place last weekend, that those voted into office will recognise that it is not the end of their campaign but the beginning of their obligations to those who elected them, and that they will take the responsibilities seriously.

The Romanian Aid Foundation
with Asociația Neemia
Prayer Notes, June 2012

In a recent sermon, Pastor Russell alluded to the requirement in Matthew chapter 25 that those who seek to follow God's will should also care for their fellow man in times of adversity. In Luke 3, John told his disciples, "Anyone who has two shirts should share with the one who has none, and anyone who has food should do the same." We are called to be the channels of God's blessing to people in the Dorohoi area of northeast Romania, but channels need to be maintained and replenished, and that is done through prayer. Thank you for your support.

Give thanks for:

- 1.The 'surprise' arrival of some more clothing during the past week, particularly from the Isle of Man team and from Agents for Change, which has allowed the work to continue whilst we await the next load from the UK.
- 2.The AN team would like to give thanks for the security of their jobs, at a time of high unemployment and rising costs when we see daily the effects of austerity and desperation.
- 3.Give thanks for the new people who are taking an interest in our activities, and the continuing support of the 'old-timers'.

Please pray for:

- 1.The situation with regard to the shop, as explained in the current newsletter.
- 2.The continuity of supply of items required to provide for people in increasingly difficult circumstances.
- 3.A lady by the name of Jeta Morsoaca (58) who has a damaged heart valve and partial kidney failure. The cost of a full investigation would be about £120 but because her husband is unemployed she does not qualify for health care.
- 4.The elections which took place last weekend, that those voted into office will recognise that it is not the end of their campaign but the beginning of their obligations to those who elected them, and that they will take the responsibilities seriously.